The Battle of Uhud

The Battle of Uhud took place in 3 AH, when the Quraysh wanted revenge for Badr.

Uhud is on the outskirts of Madinah and is the name of a famous mountain, and the Muslim army was around 700.

The Prophet stationed 50 archers on a hilltop and ordered them not to move.

The Muslims were winning at the start so many archers left the hilltop thinking the battle was over.

The Quraysh attacked again and overcame the Muslims.

The Prophet was injured and many Muslims died, like Hamzah and Mus'ab ibn 'Umayr.

The Quraysh went back to Makkah without entering into Madinah.
